Masters in Curriculum Studies
Curriculum Leadership in BC
July 2017

WHAT is this Curriculum Studies Masters of Education, University of Victoria?

• The Masters of Education is designed to bring experienced teachers together for a two-year cohort based program leading to the prestigious University of Victoria Masters in Education (MEd) degree. It will serve as a toolkit for lead learners in the new interdisciplinary multi-age curriculum.

• Graduates will complete a 15.0 units (7 courses plus Project) program built around collaborative inquiry through two Summer Sessions (July only) and two Winter Sessions (Sept-Apr).

WHO would benefit from participating in this cohort?

• Classroom-based teachers interested in professional development
• School based department leaders/heads
• School based coaches (e.g. literacy, technology, Inclusive Education)
• District level consultants
• Teachers who are interested in becoming university instructors
HOW can I apply to be a graduate student for this cohort?

Application Requirements:
Applicants are required to have at least 2 years experience as a practicing classroom teacher. Applicants must also meet the Faculty of Graduate Studies entry requirements, and the departmental requirements for a grade point average of B or higher.
