Family Centre Summer Camps

The Family Centre is excited to announce that we will be hosting two summer camps in the month of July. These camps are for kids entering Grades 1-7 in September. The camps will run Monday-Friday 1-3pm and there is no cost for attending.

Nature Camp – July 10th-14th
– Led by Molly Vermeulen

If your child loves to be outside as much as I do, exploring, creating, and learning, the Family Centre has the perfect summer camp. While taking advantage of our beautiful city and the weather the camp will be running July 10th-14th and will be nature based. There will be activities like scavenger hunts, crafts, science projects, and group activities/relay races. We will cover a wide range of interests within the outdoors.

Art Camp – July 24th-28th
– Led by Leah Hansen

Let your child explore their creative side at art camp! We will be painting, drawing and getting messy. Children are welcome to bring their own ideas, and we will also delve into projects that will spark their imagination. Every day will focus on a different medium and project!

If you are interested in your children attending one or both of the camps, please email the Family Centre at familyc@uvic.ca.

“Ramadan Mubarak” to all of our Muslim community here in Family Housing.

Ramadan

Hana Elfirjani

Ramadan is the ninth month in the Islamic calendar (moon Calendar). It is the holy month of fasting where all Muslims around the world are trying to do more good deeds such as prayer, fasting, charity-giving and self-accountability. During the holy period of Ramadan, Muslims fast from sunrise to sunset. Fasting during Ramadan is one of the five Pillars (fundamental religious duties) of Islam. It is a time of self-examination and increased religious devotion. The fast is broken after sunset with prayer and a meal called Iftar and it contains many kinds of foods, especially dates. Muslims broaden their compassion for the hungry and less fortunate people when they fast, and they should be more patient and self-controlled during the holy month of Ramadan. Special prayers known as Tarawih are held every night in the Mosque. Ramadan ends when the first crescent of the new moon is sighted. Eid-al-fiter is the Islamic holiday that marks the end of Ramadan. This year Ramadan started on Saturday, May 27th. Muslims congratulate each other at the beginning of Ramadan saying “Ramadan Mubarak” which means have a blessed Ramadan.

Safety Committee

Did you know that each area of campus has a safety committee? These committees work in partnership with Campus Security to discuss safety concerns and receive information relevant to the community they represent. Lam Circle has not had a safety committee in a number of years, but Campus Security are interested in partnering with family housing residents to recreate one. Are you interested in being a part of this? The committee could meet as often as once a month or just three or four times a year. It would be up to the committee to decide which issues they would like to seek to improve or perhaps areas they would like to have information on. Earthquake Preparedness? First Aid? Theft Reduction? If you are interested please email Emma at familyc@uvic.ca to find out more.

When to call Campus Security

Family housing is a unique neighbourhood, as you not only have access to police department services, but the services of a Campus Security department as well. This is a benefit, as police response times in emergency situations can vary, depending on their location, while Campus Security response time in an emergency can be as short as 2-3 minutes, due to their close proximity to Family Housing.

Campus Security provides a 24-hour a day service, responding to a variety of situations such as, but not limited to:

- Fire, mechanical and intrusion alarms
- Noise complaints
- Medical emergencies (Security Officers are trained to OFA Level 2 standard)
- Access requests
- Lost/missing children
- Suspicious persons
- Cougar sightings
- Reports of theft or damage to property
- Parking issues
- Reports of break and enter

Campus Security’s Personal Safety Coordinators Allison Eddy and Fiona Puszka are available to answer any questions regarding safety and security on campus. Their phone number is 250-721-8981, email is psc@uvic.ca.
