FA 346 The Arts and Technology II (maximum enrollment: 24 students)
1.5 units, September – December 2017, Tuesdays and Thursdays, 4:30 p.m. – 5:50 p.m.
A practice-oriented seminar, focusing on the use of computer technology in the arts. Areas for consideration may vary from year to year.

- Hands-on learning will be combined with the study of theoretical and analytical skills applicable to the interdisciplinary contribution of digital media to the arts.

- Case studies consider new genres and forms of art and their social and cultural impact. Students explore how select aspects of sight, sound, text, creative writing, performance, and historical aesthetic context interact with technology in emerging areas of artistic expression.

- FA 346 is a core course for students working towards the Minor in Digital and Interactive Media in the Arts.

Notes:

- This course is offered under the Fine Arts course calendar and is open to all UVic students with minimum second-year standing.

- It may be taken more than once for credit in different topics with permission of the faculty to a maximum of 6 units.

Expressions of Interest are due by 4:30 p.m. Monday, June 19, 2017.

Positions will be assigned no later than June 30th 2017
