Please select the correct collection for your withholding request:

- ETD (Electronic Theses and Dissertations): The thesis or dissertation will not be accessible but a brief record of its existence will be available. Students wanting this option will require permission of the Dean and have a signed Withholding Form with an expiry date or date of "indefinite".
- ETD (Restricted to UVic Campus only): The thesis or dissertation will be accessible for viewing only from a computer on campus. The thesis or dissertation will be held in this way for 12 months and requires permission of the student and supervisor and must be approved by the Dean. Upon expiry of the initial withholding period, an extension of a further 12 months can be requested of the Dean from the student and supervisor. (Please note: If no extension is requested, and the expiry date has passed, the thesis or dissertation will be moved to the ETD (Electronic Theses and Dissertations) open access collection.

At our request, the commencement of the period for which the partial license shall operate shall be delayed from (on or before the defense date only) _____ for a period of one year for an expiry date of _____.
