Accounting B Corporation

Raffa, PC, The Only Top 100 Ranked B Corp Certified Accounting Firm, Gets an A+ from B Lab

Raffa is the only Certified B Corp on the US’s list of Top 100 accounting firms. The firm’s demographics contrast sharply with national industry trends as the only national Top 100 firm where more than 50% of owners and 65% of the employees are women. Twelve of the 18 partners are women and of the seven equity partners, five are women, leading an international, multi-cultural staff.

Reporting

Ethical Corporation has compiled a report that outlines the role the Sustainable Development Goals play in sustainability reporting and how leading brands are incorporating them into their reporting and communications strategy.

The briefing contains insights from Richard Howitt, CEO, International Integrated Reporting Council; Rowland Hill, Head of Sustainable Development Reporting, M&S; and Tim Mohin, Chief Executive, Global Reporting Initiative.

Go here to download your copy of The SDGs and Sustainability Reporting & Communications

Copyright 101: Tools and Tips for ensuring that your course is copyright compliant

Wondering about copyright guidelines for making course materials available to students? This session is open to UVic faculty, instructors, T.A.s, staff and administrators.

August 31, 2017, 10:30-11:30 a.m. Please register.

Academics and business on B Corps

On Oct 4 and 5, Rotman School of Business will host the Global B Corp Academic Community Roundtable: The Role of the Academic Community in Scaling the B Corp Movement. The Roundtable will bring together academics and B Corps from around the world.

The agenda and other details are here.

In person, cost is USD50 to cover breakfast and lunch, or join via webcast at no cost.

Proudly supported by Goldcorp Inc.