Everybody’s business: implementing the six Principles for Responsible Management Education

This week’s PRiMETime blog lists fabulous examples of how a few schools act on the principles. Here’s just one heart-catcher: Kwansei Gakuin University in Japan each year admits and covers the tuition for three refugees chosen by the UN High Commission for Refugees. The program takes into account that it can be difficult or impossible for applicants to get academic records from their home country. See some of Gustavson’s initiatives in our most recent Sharing Information on Progress report to PRME on CSSI’s website.

Walking the talk on Sept. 21

The “largest climate march in history” will coincide with the UN Climate Summit on Sept 21 in New York City. The Avaaz site can help find other events near you.

Carmakers tackle conflict minerals

AIAG’s 2014 Automotive Corporate Responsibility global survey found that reporting was the most significant issue for industry members trying to tackle the complex challenges of conflict minerals. Great definitions, processes, and other info in this wonderfully clear slideshow.

U Vic’s Centre for Global Studies presents Carbon Shift: The Coming Global Energy Transition, a free public talk by Dr. Thomas Homer-Dixon on Friday, Sept. 26, 6-7:30 p.m. in Room A104, Bob Wright Building, U Vic

Westjet and Live Different enhance their Hero Holidays partnership, an initiative that provides year-round global humanitarian opportunities in Mexico, Dominican Republic, Haiti and Thailand.

Join our mailing list. Leave our mailing list. Ask a question. Share a great idea.

cssi@uvic.ca @CSSIRachel CSSI Gustavson

Suiting up: Workplace Skills Conference 2014

Third-year Commerce students heard from industry experts like Stacey Toews of Level Ground Trading, Melanie Mahlman of Victoria Hospitals Foundation, and MealShare co-founder Derek Juno at Gustavson’s annual Workplace Skills Conference on September 11 & 12.

Photo credits: Derek Ford Photography
More great images of the conference by Derek Ford at http://pgustavsonwpsc.wordpress.com/gallery/