Wednesday, March 4
University of Victoria, Cadboro Commons, Arbutus Room: 12 p.m. - 2 p.m.
Speakers | Exhibitors | Light Lunch | Free to Attend

Orange Your Workplace

Violence Against Women needs to be discussed. Open discussions can prevent a workplace incident.

On March 4, join employers, police and local support agencies to learn about the impact of Violence Against Women in the workplace and resources for employees.

Orange Day Toolkit provided to start the conversation.

Register: orangeyourworkplace.eventbrite.ca

Orange Day is the United Nations Campaign to raise awareness and show opposition to Violence Against Women with the colour orange on the 25th of every month.

Orange Your Workplace is a Leadership Victoria Community Action Project delivered in partnership with The Cridge Centre for the Family.