June 16 - 19, 2016 Winnipeg, Manitoba

For more than 20 years, CHERD’s Canadian Institute on Student Affairs & Services (CISAS) has been the go-to program for university and college administrators and their staff. The program offers the most current and relevant information needed to become a more effective post-secondary administrator.

CISAS 2016 will be a comprehensive course designed for student affairs professionals looking for new and innovative ideas, to serve the changing landscape of higher education. It will be presented by a team of student affairs professionals from across Canada.

The program will be held at the Historic Massey Building downtown Winnipeg

Audience
University or College Student Affairs professionals including front-line personnel including academic advisors, counselors, administrators, and registrarial, student life, and housing staff.

Key Topic Areas
- Student Affairs in changing times, vision, mission, values and foundational principles
- Organizational theory and culture in higher education
- Administrative context of Student Affairs
- Student Development Theory
- Designing, delivering and assessing programs in Student Affairs
- The legal context: understanding the legal framework of Student Affairs work, especially regarding how the law defines and affects our relationships with students
- Strategic Enrolment Management
- Serving new and diverse populations
- Current and emerging issues in higher education and Student Affairs

Instructional Team
- Sheila Devine (LL.B), Education & Policy Officer, Memorial University of Newfoundland
- David Hannah (Ph.D), Consultant in Student Affairs and Higher Education
- Tim Rahilly (Ph.D), Associate Vice-President, Students, Simon Fraser University (Course Leader)

Fees
(includes class materials and some meals)
- $1,500 CDN for non-CACUSS attendees
- $1,200 CDN for CACUSS attendees

Contact
cheryl.dugray@umanitoba.ca

Apply by February 29, 2016 at umanitoba.ca/cherd