

SESSIONAL INSTRUCTORS

The School of Child and Youth Care at the University of Victoria invites expressions of interest from individuals interested in sessional teaching in our undergraduate CYC programs on campus and through distributed learning. Courses are offered throughout the Winter (two terms: September-December, and January-April) and Summer (May-August).

General responsibilities for a course include:

- teaching the classroom sessions or through distance delivery (workshops, teleconferences, listserves, etc.)
- consulting with students and being available to them through office hours, electronic communication and telephone
- evaluating student learning, including grading of assignments
- working collaboratively with other instructors
- working knowledge of instructional technology

Courses available for the Winter 2014 session are posted with this notice. Please indicate your preferences.

Qualifications: Child and Youth Care practice experience and an MA in CYC or allied human services fields is essential to these positions. A PhD in CYC or allied human services fields is preferred. The salary range for 1.5 units of teaching is $5,188 to $6,312 (effective May 2013).

Expressions of interest should be forwarded in writing by Wednesday, June 25th, 2014 to:

Director's Office, School of Child and Youth Care
University of Victoria, HSD Building
PO Box 1700, Stn CSC, Victoria, BC V8W 2Y2
Contact: (250) 721-7980 or kwoodhou@uvic.ca

Decisions regarding applications will be made in July / August for Winter Session 1st term (September-December), in November / December for 2nd term (January-April), and March / April for Summer Session (May-August).

For further information on the CYC program and the School of Child and Youth Care please see our website at www.cyc.uvic.ca . The School of Child and Youth Care reserves the right to fill future teaching assignments from the pool of applicants for this posting. Appointments are subject to sufficient funding and enrollment in courses. Sessional Instructors are members of CUPE Local 4163 (Component 3). The University of Victoria is an equity employer and encourages applications from women, persons with disabilities, visible minorities, Aboriginal peoples, people of all sexual orientations and genders, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of the University of Victoria.
