Hugh Campbell and Marion Alice Small Fellowship in Scottish Studies

The Advisory Committee to the Associate Dean Research invites applications for the Hugh Campbell and Marion Alice Small Faculty Fellowship in Scottish Studies. Applications from all current regular faculty members in the Faculty of Humanities are welcome. The term of the fellowship will be three years. In recognition of service to the Faculty in fulfilling the conditions listed below, the fellowship will carry in each year a 1.5 unit course release from teaching, plus a stipend of $3,000 per year.

CONDITIONS OF THE FELLOWSHIP

The holder of the fellowship will be required to:

- teach at least one course per year on a topic specifically related to Scottish Studies; preference would be given to candidates whose teachings and research already involves some aspect of Scottish Studies;
- undertake activities to promote Scottish Studies in the university and in the community, and may include, but not be restricted to, lectures, symposia, book production, field schools, etc. given the needs of the time;
- co-ordinate the Hugh Campbell and Marion Alice Small Graduate Student Scholarship in Scottish Studies;
- work with the library on acquisitions using the funds.

APPLICATION FORMAT

All applications must include:

- a detailed plan of activities to be undertaken to promote Scottish Studies in the university and the community. The fellowship holder will have an annual budget of $3,500 plus a one-time allotment of $8,000 to be used over the term of the fellowship;
- copy of the applicant’s University of Victoria curriculum vitae;
- description of the courses to be offered during the term of the fellowship (500 words per course);
- description of the applicant’s previous, ongoing and/or future scholarship related to Scottish Studies (1,000–1,500 words).

Applications should be sent to the Associate Dean Research no later than November 28. If the deadline falls on a weekend, the application is due the following Monday. The name of the successful applicant will be announced in December for a term to begin July 1 of the following year. For additional information, please contact the Dean’s Office at (250) 472-4677 or humsoff@uvic.ca.