Why Egils saga?

• Written in the first half of 13th century.
• About the Viking poet Egill Skalla-Grímsson who lived in the 10th century.
  • A late document.
• Nevertheless, information about:
  • Travels
  • Mythology
  • Poetry
  • Politics
  • Ethics
  • Viking life
• Living memory?
Outline of today’s talk

1. Vikings: general information
2. Viking diaspora
3. Egils saga as a witness to collective memory of the Viking diaspora.
4. The saga as a product of its times
5. The saga and its relationship to Snorri Sturluson
The Viking Expansion ca. 793-1066
The Vikings: Raiders and traders...

- Light and shallow ships which enabled them to come ashore at diverse locations.
- Opportunistic: if they could trade, they did, but...
- Famous raids:
  - Lindisfarne Abbey AD 793
  - Noirmoutiers AD 799
  - The Atlantic Coast of Galicia and Portugal.
  - Into the Mediterranean in the 9th century.
Explorers, settlers, mercenaries...

- Vikings in the East
  - Go up the rivers.
  - All the way to Constantinople:
    - Trade
    - Mercenaries: Varangian guard.
- Settle on the way back:
  - Kiev
  - Novgorod
Exploration and settlement to North-West

- Faroe Islands
- Iceland
- Greenland
- Vinland
Conquerers...

- Establishment of petty kingdoms or domains:
  - Ireland
  - Orkney and Shetland.
  - Caithness and the Hebrides
  - Normandy AD 911

- Cnut the Great conquers England in 1016 before becoming king of Denmark and Norway: builder of a short-lived empire.

- Battle of Stamford Bridge 1066: end of the Viking era?
AD 800 to 1100: establishment of a Viking diaspora

• Common language and to some extent culture
  • Runes
  • Myths
  • Skaldic poetry

• Geographical conditions:
  • The sea is the means of communication.

• Iceland cultivates the memory of this Diaspora.
Social specificity

- Free farmers
  - Lead by chieftains or petty kings.
- Assemblies
- Rule of some kind of law
Cultural specificity

• North Germanic:
  • Linguistic divide from the other Germanic languages sometime in the first millennium BC.
    • Article added at the end.
    • Initial „j“ disappears: year, jahr becomes „ár“ or „aar“, jung, young becomes „ung“.
  • Other aspects.
  • Must have been diverse but also

• Shared myths and beliefs?
Constant interaction with Christian Europe

• Trade before the Viking Age.
• During the Viking Age:
  • Warfare but also cultural influence from Carolingian Europe.
  • Viking leaders, kings, adapt their behaviour and values.
  • Development of skaldic poetry may be due to influence from Carolingian court poetry.
• A „mutating periphery“
• By the early 12th century the Nordic countries have become part of Christian Europe.
Brand new book!

• Prof. Judith Jesch, University of Nottingham.
• The Viking Diaspora.
Iceland: the memory of the Viking Diaspora

- Learning.
- Social incentives for the writing down of history.
The Sagas about early Icelanders

• Íslendingasögur
• Family sagas
• Sagas of Icelanders
• Sagas about early Icelanders
Definition

• Composed in Icelandic.
• Prose narrative (sometimes prosimetrum).
• Main characters are Icelanders.
• Some if not all of the action takes place in Iceland.
• From Settlement period to Conversion or period immediately after that.
  • Distinguished from contemporary sagas which tell of events in 12th and 13th centuries.
  • And from legendary sagas which tell of kings from mythical periods.
Egils Saga: Supposed age

- The oldest manuscript fragment ca. 1250
- A copy
- 1220-1240?
- Fits well with Snorri’s life and what we know of his authorship.
- Impossible to prove.
- Egils Saga (transl. by B. Scudder, Penguin Classics, 2004)
Making use of the cultural memory of the Viking Diaspora

• Unification of Norway.
  • Resources in Norway and neighbouring lands.

• Settlement of Iceland.
  • Resources.
  • Origins of social system.

• Links to Northern Isles

• Links to the rest of North-Western Europe:
  • Danelaw of England
  • Normandy

• Pagan heritage

• Poetic heritage
Possible author: Snorri Sturluson

• No conclusive evidence
• Exaggeration of Skalla-Grímr’s settlement area.
• Close links to Heimskringla: Egla’s first chapter based on Haralds saga in Heimskringla
• Vocabulary:
  • Peter Hallberg
• Stylistic features in common with Heimskringla and Edda.
• The interest in skaldic poetry.
• Possible other reasons?
Who was Snorri Sturluson?

- Snorri Sturluson 1179-1241
- Chieftain
- Becomes lord over large domain
- Poet
- Historian
- Courtier
- Manipulation and conversion of all kinds of „capital“.
Snorri’s circumstances

- Youngest of three brothers
- Brought up by a royal family
- Very good at being a chieftain
  - Exploits his capital: legal knowledge
- Very good at manoeuvring at court
  - Also a way of exploiting his “capital”.
- Encounters scepticism among his peers.
  - Proud of his poetic abilities and achievements.
- In-fighting about becoming „earl“ of Iceland?
The Enigma of Egill.
Construction in two parts

• The first part: Thorolf’s story
• Political parable
  • Submitting to a king
  • Iceland’s situation
  • Strengthening of royal power in Western Europe from the 12th century.
• Very realistic:
  • Geography
  • Economics.
Inner logic

• Three weaknesses:
  • King is suspicious
  • Sons of Hildirid have been unjustly treated
  • Thorolf does not know his limits.
Main events

• Thorolf, his father and brother are introduced.
• The political situation
• Björgolf í Torgum
• Thorolf decides to serve the king.
• Royal service
• Good marriage
• Too successful
• Suspicion.
• Pride
The second and longer part: Egill’s story

- From hero’s birth to his death as an old man:
  - rare in the sagas.
- A poet and warrior.
- First generation Icelander.
- Travels to Norway.
- Conflict with King.
- Underlying conflict with brother and father.
- Biblical and mythological undertones:
  - A story of fratricide and retribution.
Structural Regularities in Egils Saga

Part One

Other aspects

• Bible and intertextuality
  • Abel and Cain
  • The fallen angels
  • Egill and King David

• Hiding and showing at the same time:
  • Egill and Ásgerðr

• Egill’s redemption?
  • The three burial places
  • Borrowing from Yvain
What kind of book is Egils saga?

- Highly structured
  - Internally
  - Externally
  - Unconsciously?
- Uses intertextuality to engender meaning
  - Pagan
    - Links to skaldic poetry
  - Biblical
    - Links to exegesis and medieval attitudes to sacred history
- Construction
In what circumstances could it have been written?

• Ambiguity of the political message?
  • Is it anti-royalist?
  • I don’t think so.
Conflict with nephew Sturla Sighvatsson (1199-1238)

- Sólveig
- Conflicts over paternal inheritance
- Sturla drives Snorri away
- 1237-9: Snorri in Norway.
- 1238: Sturla is killed
- Bring together the Sturlungs
- Spring 1241: Snorri brings about the wedding of his nephew and that of his sister-in-law: Reconciliation.
Social conditions of literary production in Snorri’s times

• We don’t know very much.
• Snorri is said to have had “bóksögur” “settar saman” in Reykholt around 1230.
• Why? Export of King’s sagas?
• Promoting skaldic poetry?
• Feasting however. Reykjahólar.
• My guess: Composed for the wedding of his nephew, Tumi Sighvatsson, and his sister-in-law, Þuríðr Ormsdóttir, held in Reykholt in early 1241.
