GRS 344 Fall of the Roman Republic

Fall 2017 TWF 9.30-10.30

Professor Greg Rowe

Study of the best-attested and most eventful period of Roman history: the collapse of the Roman Republic and the emergence of monarchy between 146 BCE and 14 CE. Attention to the voluminous and varied writings of Cicero and to documentary sources for the period, such as coins and inscriptions.