Spanish 149 (Summer 2017): Beginners’ Spanish Language and Cultural Immersion Program (3 Credits)
July 5 – Aug. 21; TWF 1:00 – 4:20pm in Cle A311
CRN: 31238

If you know a little Spanish or none at all, Spanish 149 (equivalent to SPAN 100A and B) is the course for you. Learn essential vocabulary and the basics of Spanish grammar in a friendly and encouraging environment. Time will also be dedicated each afternoon to activities related to Spanish and Latin American history and culture (music, art, literature, and film, etc.).

Students considering registering should do so as soon as possible to ensure confirmation of the course. Summer courses are characterized by small class sizes and increased individual attention, but the minimum enrollment must be met before the course start date in order to avoid cancellation. Successful participants will be eligible to register in 2nd year level Spanish courses in the fall term.

Instructor: Prof. C. Forster