UVic Course Experience Survey - Fall 2015 for Subject (Secondary Subject)

We want to hear about your course learning experiences at UVic.

We are very proud of the teaching that occurs at UVic. The only way we can keep the quality of instruction high, and continue to strive to be even better, is to listen and respond to what individual students in our courses have to say about their learning experiences. Please use the Next button below to give feedback on your personal experience. We value your perspective.

Your responses will be used:
- by the instructor for making adjustments to teaching and course design;
- by the department for assuring the quality of instruction and assessing the instructor;
- and by the University for strategic planning with regard to meeting its commitment to high-quality education and student success.

Please use the:
- Next button to advance through the survey
- Save button to save your responses so you can return to complete the survey later
- Submit button to finalize your responses (note: once submitted you cannot reopen the survey)

Get started by clicking on the Next button below.

Please note, you have approximately 15 minutes to complete the survey.
