
Teaching Award in Medical Sciences

Award Description: The Division of Medical Sciences (DMSC) will provide an annual "Award for Teaching Excellence".

This award is to recognize and reward excellence in teaching in the DMSC at UVic.

Award: The award consists of a commemorative plaque, where the name of the winner will be permanently displayed in the lobby of the Medical Sciences Building. The winner will be reimbursed for expenses related to attending an educational conference or for teaching resources, up to $1000.

Nomination Deadline: February 1st

Complete the nomination form by completing the required information below:

- 1) Fill in the name of the individual you wish to nominate.
- 2) Fill in your name and contact information.
- 3) Fill in the name and contact information of a faculty member that supports the nomination.
- 4) Give a brief overview of the main reasons for the nomination, based on the criteria of the award.
- 5) Sign and date the nomination form.
- 6) Submit the application by the deadline stated above to:

Karen Myers, Secretary, Division of Medical Sciences, University of Victoria

By email: dmscsec@uvic.ca (Save form to desktop, attach to email, put "Award" in subject line)

By mail: PO Box 1700 STN CSC, Victoria, BC, V8W 2Y2

Or drop off in person: Room 216, Medical Sciences Building, UVic

Nomination Information:

Nominee's Name:	Nominator's Name:
Supporting Faculty Member's Name and contact:	Nominator's Contact Info (email and phone #):

Overview:

In 250 words or less, please provide an overview of why you believe this person should receive this teaching award (please refer to the criteria outlined for this award).

Declaration:

I nominate the faculty member named above for the "Teaching Award in Medical Sciences".

Signature: _____ Date: _____

Last amended on December 12, 2013