

The City Talks

A distinguished lecture series co-sponsored by the University of Victoria's Committee for Urban Studies and the Centre for Studies in Religion and Society.

Religion and the City

Join scholars for public presentations and discussions of the conflicts, pleasures, and politics of city life.

September 26

Old Religions in New Cities, New Religions in Old Cities: Lessons for and from Canada

Paul Bramadat, Centre for Studies in Religion and Society, University of Victoria

October 24

The Unexpected Other: Place of Worship, City Planning, and Social Transactions in Montréal

Annick Germain, National Institute for Scientific Research—Centre for Urbanization, Culture, and Society

November 21

The City in the Religious Imagination

Myer Siemiatycki, Department of Politics and Public Administration, Ryerson University

December 2

Religious Diversity and Spatial Justice

Valérie Amiraux, Department of Sociology, University of Montreal

All presentations begin at 7:30 p.m.
Legacy Art Gallery | 630 Yates Street | Downtown Victoria
Admission is free of charge and open to the public
For more information: www.TheCityTalks.ca

University of Victoria