GEOG 391 - A01: Landscapes of the Heart

How are we connected to place? Grounded in humanistic geography and qualitative methods, this course will investigate the meaningful non-tangible relationships between humankind and environment. Learn through seminars on emotion, aesthetics, and ethics, and in the field (field-journaling). Humanities, social sciences, and fine arts students are welcome.

Instructor: Maleea Acker