Geography 391 A04: Indigenous Geographies of Vancouver Island

- Introduction to the complexity, diversity, depth and significance of Indigenous geographies of Vancouver Island
- Emphasis on viewpoints characteristic to local Straits Salish First Nations
- Guiding themes:
  - Introduction to the pre-colonial Indigenous world
  - Contact and colonization
  - Possibilities for the future and struggles for Indigenous peoples

Instructor: Dr. Nick Claxton
Register now for Spring 2018