Instructor: Dr. Don Fetherston, J.D, Ph.D.

Course Description:
It’s Canada’s 150 birthday this year! We will analyze some of the highlights of Canadian culture. Students will examine such topics as Canadian music, art, poetry, and prose. Social change in the Canadian institutions of government, religion, education, economy, and the family will be analyzed.

Course Outcomes/Objectives:
Students should develop an ability to see how their lives are created and impacted by what is happening beyond their personal lives in B.C., Canada, and the world. This ability should assist students in thinking about their career and other life choices.

Course Pre/Co-requisites:
No pre/co-requisites are required

Evaluations may include
One midterms and one final test
One group project
One individual topic

Required Resources May Include:
Readings and PowerPoint presentations posted by the instructor.

 A more detailed course outline will be distributed to students during the first week of classes.