SOCI 382
Sociology of Sexualities

Instructor:
Dr. Aaron Devor
Email: ahdevor@uvic.ca
Phone: (250) 721-7577
Office: COR A367
Office Hours: Tues 4:30-5:30 PM and Tues 9:30-10:00 PM

Course Description:
An examination of sociological, theoretical and historical perspectives on sexualities.

Course Pre/Co-requisites:
Sociology 281 is a recommenced pre-requisite

Topics May Include:
Topics may include medicalization of sexualities; research methods used in the study of sexualities; sexualities of children and teens; heterosexualities; lesbian, gay and queer sexualities; bisexuality, asexualities, pansexualities, and polyamoury; trans sexualities; sexually transmitted infections; consent; sex for sale; sex positivity.
Intersections among sexualities and other forms of social inequalities will be considered.

Required Resources May Include:
There will be no textbook for this course. The full course syllabus will specify the assigned readings for each week. They will all be available through the library or on Course Spaces. You will be required to read them BEFORE each class.

Please note: This will be a 3-hour evening course that meets once a week.

---

1 This online outline is only intended to give an overall sense of the course. Detailed course outlines will be made available for all registered students on the first day of class. Only those outlines are to be considered official.