SOCI 103
Canadian Society

Instructor: Dr. Simon Carroll

Course Description:

The origins, development, and structure of Canadian society analyzed through a sociological lens. Examines topics such as: Canadian nationality/multiculturalism; social stratification; class; gender; colonialism and racism, Canadian political economy and Canada in a globalized world.

Course Outcomes/Objectives:

To gain a critical sociological perspective on the origins, development and current status of Canadian Society; to gain an introductory understanding of the development of Canadian sociology as a discipline.

Course Pre/Co-requisites:

N/A

Topics May Include:

Colonialism
Class and Status Stratification/Inequality
Gender in Canadian Society
Canadian Political Economy
Multiculturalism
Québec as a Distinct Society
Racism
Canada in a Globalized World

Required Resources May Include:

Resources are posted on Coursespaces; no text required

1 This online outline is only intended to give an overall sense of the course. Detailed course outlines will be made available for all registered students on the first day of class. Only those outlines are to be considered official.