ACCEPTABLE USE OF ELECTRONIC INFORMATION RESOURCES

Associated Procedures:
Procedures Regarding the Use of Broadcast Email and Other Mass Communications

PURPOSE
1.00 The purpose of this policy, in conjunction with other applicable policies, is to:
(a) set forth the acceptable use of all Electronic Information Resources in the custody or under the control of the university; and
(b) describe the rights and responsibilities of the university and of the University Community with respect to the use of these resources.

DEFINITIONS
2.00 Administrative Authority means individuals with administrative responsibility for units (e.g., Vice-Presidents, Chief Information Officer, Executive Directors, Deans, Chairs, Directors and other unit heads) and individuals with functional stewardship of Electronic Information Resources.

3.00 Information System means the people, processes, organization, technologies, equipment and facilities that collect, process, store, display, transmit, and disseminate information.

4.00 Unit means a group of Users, linked by a common interest or purpose, including but not limited to: faculties, departments, divisions, schools and centres.

5.00 User means any individual or Unit that uses or accesses Electronic Information Resources as authorized by an Administrative Authority.

6.00 Provider means individuals who design, manage, and operate Electronic Information Resources (e.g., project managers, system designers, application programmers, or system administrators).

7.00 Electronic Information Resources means assets and infrastructure owned by, explicitly controlled by, or in the custody of the University including but not limited to data, records, electronic services, network services, software, computers, mobile computing device and Information Systems.
8.00 University Community members include
- all employees and registered students of the university;
- any person holding a university appointment whether or not that person is an employee;
- post doctoral fellows;
- separately incorporated organizations operating on campus;
- organizations and individuals required by contract to comply with university policies and procedures;
- members of the Board of Governors;
- anyone residing on campus; and
- all other Users granted access to Electronic Information Resources

SCOPE

9.00 This policy applies to all University Community members. It applies to all Electronic Information Resources in the custody or under the control of the University regardless of physical location.

POLICY

10.00 The university provides Electronic Information Resources to the members of the University Community primarily to serve the educational, research, and administrative purposes of the University.

11.00 Appropriate use of Electronic Information Resources is governed by the following principles:

11.01 Each User of Electronic Information Resources bears primary responsibility for her or his use of these services and for the information he or she transmits, receives, or stores through use of these services.

11.02 Users are expected to respect the rights and property of others, including privacy, confidentiality and intellectual property.

11.03 Users shall comply with all applicable laws, regulations, and contracts and are expected to behave in a manner consistent with the University’s policies and mission.

11.04 Incidental use of Electronic Information Resources for personal use is acceptable but is limited to responsible activities that minimize the disruption of university business while attending to necessary personal affairs.

11.05 Use of Electronic Information Resources for commercial purposes is limited by University policies governing commercial activities sponsored by the University, for the purpose of enhancing the University's mission.

11.06 Connection of privately owned computer equipment to University communications services is permitted. Access to Electronic Information Resources from these computers, or from computers attached to remote networks, is also permitted. All such usage is governed by this policy. Connection of privately owned communications equipment with the intention of extending communications capabilities to other computers or communications equipment requires specific authorization of the Chief Information Officer (or designate).

11.07 Users from federated or trusted affiliates are expected to abide by this policy. Likewise, members of the University Community are expected to abide by the requisite policies at federated or trusted affiliates when using Electronic Information Resources of those affiliates.

11.08 An email or other record created using Electronic Information Resources or university Information Systems may be a university record for the purpose of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act.

12.00 As a condition of access to Electronic Information Resources, a User agrees not to use these resources for inappropriate or unauthorized purposes. Some examples of inappropriate use include but are not limited to:

(a) Compromising or attempting to compromise the integrity of any Electronic Information Resources;
(b) Using accounts or identification numbers without authorization from the service Provider;
(c) Revealing, sharing, or showing passwords, access codes, or passphrases for accounts associated with individual Users;
(d) Sending communications that attempt to hide the identity of the sender or represent the sender as someone else;
(e) Seeking, by any means, copies of or information regarding passwords, data, or programs of another user unless explicitly authorized to do so by that user;
(f) Sending communication or using Electronic Information Resources, including email, web pages, that discriminate against or harass, defame, offend, or threaten;
(g) Using a Electronic Information Resource for non-University projects except as allowed by 11.05;
(h) Using a Electronic Information Resource for commercial or other external purposes except as allowed by 11.05;
(i) Attempting to disrupt, degrade, or interfere with the regular operation of any Electronic Information Resource;
(j) Making or using illegal copies of copyrighted materials or software, storing such copies on Electronic Information Systems, or transmitting them over University networks;
(k) Displaying or transmitting information that violates laws (e.g., copyright, criminal code, privacy);
(l) Monitoring Electronic Information Resources without authorization;
(m) Introducing or propagating any malicious or unwanted software designed to self-replicate, damage, infiltrate, or otherwise hinder the performance of any Electronic Information Resource;
(n) Initiating mass email transmissions, or other electronic mass communications:
   (i) without authorization from the University Secretary, except as set out in the Procedures Regarding Mass Email and Other Mass
       Communications; or
   (ii) to listservs, forums, discussion boards, social media sites, or other venues, provided either by the University or third parties, that segments of the University community have knowingly joined.

13.00 Any exception to the provisions set out in section 12 must have the prior written approval of the appropriate Vice President (or designate), unless otherwise provided for in other University policies.

Compliance

14.00 Use of Electronic Information Resources acknowledges acceptance of and compliance with this policy.

15.00 The Information Security Office will investigate suspected violations of this policy; recommend or implement corrective action; suspend, disable, terminate, or remove access to or from Electronic Information Resources; or take other action in accordance with collective agreements, the Framework Agreement and university policies and procedures.

15.01 The Information Security Officer, if warranted, will assemble a response team that includes the following individuals (or their designates):
    • the Information Security Officer
    • the Chief Information Officer
    • the Administrative Authority responsible for the Electronic Information or Information systems involved.

15.02 Based on the nature of the Incident, the response team may also include the following individuals (or their designates):
    • the University Secretary
    • the University Privacy Officer
    • Associate Vice-President Human Resources
    • General Council or Associate Vice-President Faculty Relations and Academic Administration
    • the Director of University Communication Services
    • Director Campus Security
    • Manager, Computer Help Desk
    • Other Administrative Authorities
    • Other subject matter experts

15.03 In cases where action will have a substantial, negative effect on a Unit or person to fulfill their responsibilities, the approval of the appropriate Vice President (or designate) will be required before taking this step.

PROCEDURES REGARDING THE USE OF BROADCAST EMAIL AND OTHER MASS COMMUNICATIONS

Approving Authority: Vice President, Finance and Operations
Effective date: June, 2012
Supersedes: New
Last Editorial Change:

PURPOSE

1.00 The purpose of this document is to set out procedures to be followed when sending broadcast email or other mass communications to the University Community.

DEFINITIONS

2.00 The definitions contained within the university’s Acceptable Use of Electronic Information Resources apply to these procedures.

PROCEDURES

3.00 Broadcast email or other mass communications to all faculty, staff and/or students, or major segments thereof, or to other major segments of the University Community are permitted if the message is institutional in nature or relates to the critical operation of the university, and if permission has been granted by the University Secretary.

Exceptions to this include:

3.01 Messages for all students or specific student segments pertaining to critical academic business, or university-wide deadlines or schedules may be sent with permission from the Registrar and Executive Director, Student Enrolment (or designate).

3.02 Where the safety of any individual or property is considered to be at imminent risk, or where the demands of a critical incident on campus make it necessary, the Director of Campus Security and the Director of Communications (or their designates) are authorized to arrange for the issuing of broadcast e-mail or other mass communications as they deem necessary in the circumstances. Where possible, they will seek the approval of the President or the pertinent Vice-President but, in all cases, they will advise members of Executive Council whenever their authority under this section has been exercised.
4.00 Messages from the University of Victoria Students’ Society or the Graduate Students’ Society to their members may be sent with permission from the University Secretary.

5.00 Under the authority of the Chief Information Officer, system outage messages may be sent to users of the affected systems.
