Welcome to the UVic Alumni Community 32

Message from the President

Congratulations, graduates!

I am so excited, and honoured, to help celebrate your incredible achievements today. You have worked so hard for this moment and should take great pride in all that you have accomplished.

While convocation recognizes individual achievement, it is also a celebration of something larger. None of us succeed alone. Along your journey, family members, friends, Elders, mentors, staff and students alike supported you, encouraged you, and even challenged you to reach this moment. They helped you grow, inspired you to keep going and shared in your successes. This accomplishment belongs to you, but it is also a reflection of the community that helped you along the way.

Throughout the process of becoming the new President of the University of Victoria, I did plenty of homework too. I learned, through reputation and research, that a UVic education teaches you not only what you know, but how to be inter-connected with others and contribute to the world around you. You have earned a quality education that invites you to think critically, engage with diverse perspectives and explore new ideas. And I hope you have discovered that leadership does not exist in isolation. It is rooted in community, strengthened by collaboration and guided by a commitment to making a positive difference.

I encourage you to carry forward the UVic spirit of connection and purpose. Our world needs togetherness and understanding more than ever before and will require thoughtful, compassionate and engaged leaders like yourselves. I hope you are all willing to face it together, arm in arm.

Today, our alumni community grows. While your time as a student may be ending, your relationship with the University of Victoria continues. You will always be part of this remarkable community, and we look forward to staying connected as you make your impact in the world. We are cheering you on!

To the graduates of Fall 2026, and on behalf of the entire University of Victoria, I extend my heartfelt congratulations and best wishes for the future. Continue to be a light in the world.

Rhonda N. McEwen, PhD
President and Vice-Chancellor

Message from the Chancellor

Congratulations, graduates!

Thank you for the effort and sacrifice that have brought you here today. I'm honoured to share this joyful occasion with you as you walk across the convocation stage. Now is a time to reflect on all your hard work, to be grateful for the countless supporters who have helped you along the way and to turn your attention to new beginnings.

Be certain in the knowledge that the University of Victoria faculty and staff and I are immensely proud of you. In your time with us, you have explored the depths of knowledge and understanding. Have confidence in the skills, resilience and character you've developed; they will serve you well in the years ahead. Be especially proud to carry with you the special knowledge of the land the university is built upon—that of the Lək ʷəŋən territory—and gratitude to the Songhees, Esquimalt and W̱SÁNEĆ peoples who have welcomed us here. This is something to share and not forget.

This occasion is not a goodbye. As you embark on your next journey, I encourage you to remain connected with your classmates and your teachers, to keep the local and global UVic community vibrant in the years ahead. As a graduate of the University of Victoria myself, I am heartened when I think of our motto, "A multitude of the wise is the health of the world," knowing the world is better because you were here. I truly believe it will become better still as you make your way forward and pursue your respective futures as skilled practitioners, critical thinkers and citizens.

Thank you and good luck!

Hon. Marion R. Buller, C.M.
Chancellor

Fostering Respect and Reconciliation

In our ongoing efforts to foster respect and reconciliation, we begin the convocation ceremonies by acknowledging the territory the university stands on and by honouring the graduates with traditional songs. As our graduates are drummed into the ceremony, we are reminded of the strength and vision of those who have lived on this land since time immemorial.

CEREMONIAL FURNISHINGS

The ceremonial furnishings are a visible way to demonstrate our commitment to respecting the connection Indigenous peoples have with their ancestors, cultures and land. Created through a collaboration among 12 artists and completed in 1994, these furnishings were a gift of the late Dr. Michael C. Williams. The style and imagery of these pieces draw from the stories and artistic traditions of several Northwest Coast First Nations.

CHANCELLOR'S CHAIR

Carvers Art Thompson (Nuu-chah-nulth), Calvin Hunt (Kwakwaka'wakw), Norman Tait (Nisga'a), Don Yeomans (Haida) and John Livingston collaborated with weavers Ann Smith (Tutchone-Tlingit) and Cheryl Samuel on the Chancellor's chair.

CHIEF SPEAKER'S STAFF

The Chief Speaker's staff was designed and carved by Richard Hunt (Kwakwaka'wakw).

RAVEN LECTERN

The raven lectern was designed and carved by John Livingston.

KNEELING STOOL

The kneeling stool was created by weaver Roberta Louis (Musqueam), and carvers Susan Point (Musqueam) and Glenn Tallio (Nuxalk).

KNEELING FIGURE MACE STAND

The kneeling figure mace stand was designed and carved by Tom Hunt (Kwakwaka'wakw).

Our History

The University of Victoria's roots go back to 1903, when Victoria College opened its doors—shared with Victoria High School—to seven students taking first- and second-year McGill University courses in English, French, Greek, Latin, mathematics and physics. The college closed in 1916 when the provincial government established the University of British Columbia. But with the return of soldiers from World War I, there was a desperate need for post-secondary education, and Victoria College reopened in 1920, with 75 students taking courses from the first two years of UBC's Arts program.

Within months, the college moved into Craigdarroch Castle, where it remained until 1946, when another post-war influx of students swelled the student body to 600, an unmanageable number for the castle's already cramped quarters. A large student protest resulted in Victoria College sharing space with the Victoria Normal School, at what is today the Lansdowne campus of Camosun College. In the mid-1950s, the Victoria Normal School became Victoria College's Faculty of Education. Still growing, in 1959 the college purchased the land from the federal Department of National Defence and the Hudson's Bay Company for the Gordon Head campus. Opening the first building on the campus (the Clearihue Building) in 1962, Premier W.A.C. Bennett announced that Victoria would finally get a university. The University of Victoria was born in 1963, and Victoria College was no more.

The student body grew rapidly as new faculties, programs and buildings were added. The McPherson Library opened in 1964, and the Faculty of Graduate Studies was established in 1965, with the university awarding its first PhD in 1969. UVic has gone from strength to strength, in a few short decades becoming the vibrant, dynamic and top-ranked university that it is today, offering Canada's most extraordinary environment for discovery and innovation.

THE COAT OF ARMS

The open book and the arm holding a torch aloft symbolize learning, and the three red martlets are borrowed from the McGill University coat of arms. Above the torch are the Hebrew words for "Let there be light," while the Latin below the shield translates as "A multitude of the wise is the health of the world."

UVic Campus, 1967 (UVic Archives and Special Collections)

"A multitude of the wise is the health of the world."

On behalf of the Faculty of Engineering and Computer Science, I am delighted to congratulate you on this outstanding accomplishment. Earning your degree reflects your intellectual rigour and hard work, and the perseverance that defines great engineers and computer scientists. The disciplines you have mastered are among the most consequential of our time, and the challenges ahead demand precisely the analytical thinking and innovative problem-solving your training has instilled in you. You are joining a community of thinkers and builders who will help define the decades to come, and so I encourage you to ask difficult questions, pursue meaningful work, and remain committed to lifelong learning. Your potential to contribute to your field and the world is immense. Congratulations!

FACULTY OF HUMANITIES
DEAN, DR. ANNALEE LEPP

Congratulations on completing your degree in the humanities! This is a major accomplishment, and I am extremely proud of you. In the humanities, we ask complex questions about what it means to be human, in both the past and the present, and the nature of our responsibilities in relation to the world and its future. We uphold human dignity, diversity and social justice. Right now, the need for social engagement, intellectual openness, critical thinking and moral courage is more pressing than ever. Wherever your path leads you next, do continue to pursue your passions with the same commitment, perseverance, creativity and curiosity that brought you to this pivotal moment.

FACULTY OF LAW
DEAN, FREYA KODAR

On behalf of UVic Law faculty and staff, congratulations on completing your legal studies! Wherever your journey takes you, we hope you will use your legal knowledge and skills to help individuals and communities work across differences of opinion, experience and worldviews, and within and across legal orders, to resolve disputes and take care of each other. Thank you for choosing UVic Law and for all you have brought to this community. We have learned from you and look forward to seeing the contributions you make to your current and future communities.

FACULTY OF SCIENCE
DEAN, DR. PETER LOOCK

Congratulations, graduates! Completing your degree is a milestone and you have much to be proud of. Graduation doesn't signal the end of your learning but is instead an important landmark in your journey of lifelong learning. No matter where you go, your education, critical-thinking skills and work ethic will hold you in good stead. We are all excited to see how you will change the world. I hope that you will keep in touch with your home department and with the Faculty of Science. On behalf of the faculty and staff, I wish you continued success in all your future endeavours.

FACULTY OF SOCIAL SCIENCES
ACTING DEAN, DR. MAURICIO GARCIA-BARRERA

Remember the day you got the letter of admission from UVic? Back then, going through a whole degree may have felt like an enormous task. The truth is that it is indeed an enormous task, and you did it! I am very proud of your commitment to your academic program and the dedication that saw you through. And here you are now, at the end of one road and preparing for new ones. You have a new set of lenses to see the world through; you have lots to say and do. Stay curious. The learner in you is not going anywhere. Congratulations!

DIVISION OF CONTINUING STUDIES
DEAN, DR. JO-ANNE CLARKE

Congratulations to all the lifelong learners who have recently earned a professional certificate or diploma through the Division of Continuing Studies! Today marks more than the completion of your program. It reflects the knowledge, skills and professional capabilities you have developed through your dedication, resilience and commitment to growth. For many of you, this journey also involved adapting to a new environment, balancing multiple responsibilities and building new connections. These experiences have strengthened valuable skills that will open doors to new opportunities and possibilities. Best wishes for continued success in all your future endeavours!

Academic Traditions

The spring and fall convocation ceremonies are formal academic occasions when the university's rich traditions are displayed.

THE COLOURS

The regalia worn by UVic graduates reflect the type of degree they are receiving. All graduates receiving bachelor's and master's degrees wear black gowns and mortarboards, with hoods in the colour associated with their degree. The master's hoods also have a mitred neckpiece and a narrow band of black velvet. The doctoral gown is in Cambridge style, with red front facings and sleeve linings, the mortarboard is black with a red tassel, and the hood, in the Oxford style, is red with blue lining and gold trim. The regalia for honorary degree recipients is predominantly red. The gown is in the Cambridge style, the hood is in the Aberdeen pattern, and the mortarboard is black velvet with red cord trim and tassel.

Faculty and staff wear the academic dress of their highest degree, from the institution where they earned it. The Chancellor's gown is of purple corded silk, trimmed with purple velvet and gold braid. The headdress can be a matching purple velvet cap with gold trim in Tudor style or a black velvet mortarboard trimmed with gold. The President's gown and cap are similar, but in UVic's blue. Members of the Board of Governors wear a black Tudor-style cap with gold tassel and a black gown in the traditional bachelor's degree style, with gold sleeve linings. The Chair's gown is similar, but with gold front facings as well.

UVic's official colours are blue and gold. The red hood worn by arts graduates reflects UVic's early affiliation with McGill University; the science graduates' gold hood and education graduates' blue hood are reminiscent of the affiliation with the University of British Columbia.

THE UNIVERSITY MACE

In the Middle Ages, the mace was a large spiked metal ball on a chain and was used not only to recognize people of rank and authority at an assembly but also to protect them. Today, the university mace symbolizes the Chancellor's authority to confer degrees.

The mace rests in its cradle in front of the Chancellor's position on the platform. As presiding officer, the Chancellor steps forward to declare, "The convocation is duly assembled for the granting of degrees." The mace remains in place for the duration of the ceremony.

A gift from the Victoria College graduating class of 1961 to commemorate the first convocation held at the Gordon Head campus, the university mace was created by Jefferies Silversmiths, a local company. The shaft is made from Douglas fir, and the weighted head (reminiscent of the weapon of old) is of silver over copper. The head is encircled by dogwood blossoms, with a raised hand holding a lighted torch above. The coat of arms is engraved on the side of the head.

THE ORATOR'S STOLE

When presenting their citations for honorary degree recipients, university orators wear a blue stole with a white martlet on the left end and stripes of red and yellow on the right.

THE PLEDGE

The Chancellor addresses the candidates: "Graduates, will each of you accept the degree to which you are entitled, with its inherent rights and privileges and the responsibility and loyalty which it implies?"

Each candidate replies, "I accept this degree, with its inherent rights and privileges and the responsibility and loyalty which it implies."

Elena Mairs, (Bachelor of Education) spent four consecutive years as the Vikes mascot before hanging up Thunder's helmet and putting on her grad cap this past June. She is one of the incredible students UVic welcomed to the alumni family.

WELCOME TO THE UVIC ALUMNI COMMUNITY

Congratulations on graduating! UVic Alumni Relations is proud to welcome you as a member of the alumni community.

In partnership with the UVic Alumni Association, we bring together more than 160,000 graduates worldwide to connect, learn and support one another and the university.
