LOOKING FOR TALENT?
FIND YOUR NEXT HIRE AT UVIC

What our co-op students can do

✛ Undergraduate and graduate students across all faculties bring diverse skill sets

✛ Can work in business, finance, technology, project management, marketing, field and lab work, data analysis, health promotion and much more

✛ Undertake research—22% of placements are research-based

✛ Bring enthusiasm and new ideas to tackle your projects

✛ Students are job-ready—have completed a workplace preparation course

Simple, streamlined hiring

✛ Join 1,340+ employers in all sectors hiring our students

✛ Hire year-round in January, May and September for diverse short-term roles

✛ Get personalized support from our co-op staff

✛ Connect with many funding opportunities

✛ Tap into a proven recruitment strategy—many graduates return to work for former co-op employers

CO-OP✛CAREER

Why hire from UVic?

21,500+

students attend UVic—76%+ from outside
Greater Victoria

One of Canada's largest co-op programs

Highest number of graduate-level co-op students in the country

Students are ready to work across Canada and abroad

Commitment to sustainability, hands-on learning and community impact

Strong Indigenous and international connections

What our employers say

"Co-op students always teach us so much! We have brought on some really talented, enthusiastic and out-of-the box thinkers."

Niki Hatter | General Manager/Merchandise Manager, Sitka Surf Co.

"I cannot imagine Redbrick without co-op students. They are such an important part of the cultural fabric of the company."

Aaron Sundberg | Director of Technology, Redbrick

"Co-op students are eager to learn, full of energy and bring a fresh perspective to the workplace. Hiring co-op students is a win-win for students and employers."

Dr. Andrea Wallace | Manager, BC SPCA Wild ARC

Connect with UVic Co-op

Learn more about what a co-op student can do for your organization, attend a career fair or host a free information session!

employer@uvic.ca | 250-721-6616 | uvic.ca/employers

University of Victoria