

COURSE OUTLINE

SENG440 - Embedded Systems

Term -SUMMER 2020 (202005)

Instructor

Dr. Mihai SIMA
Phone:
E-mail: msima@ece.uvic.ca

Office Hours

Days: Monday
Time: 12:00pm - 3:00pm
Location/Platform/link: Online / Zoom

Course Objectives

- Expose the students to the embedded systems domain
- Introduce design metrics for embedded systems
- Make the students understand how to approach the design of embedded systems
- Show the students where to look for information and how to interpret it

Learning Outcomes

- Ability to choose an appropriate embedded processor for a specific application
- Ability to write optimized embedded software
- Ability to implement embedded applications in fixed-point arithmetic
- Ability to perform hardware-software co-design

Syllabus

Characteristics and design of embedded systems. Quality and performance metrics. Hardware, software, firmware. Processors for embedded systems. Software optimization techniques for embedded processors. Fixed-point arithmetic. Hardware optimization techniques. Standard peripherals for embedded systems. Memory. Interfacing. Formal models and specification languages for capturing system behavior. System partitioning and hardware/software co-design. Techniques for specification, exploration, and refinement.

A-Section(s): A01 / CRN 30778 and A01 / CRN 30779

Days: Monday and Thursday

Time: 8:30am - 10:00am

Year: 2020

Online Course Delivery:

As this course will be conducted online during this term, students will need to complete assignments/labs online. The students will require access to a computer which has the following software installed: To be announced in class.

Assessment:

This is a project-based course.

Midterm (progress report):	10%	Due Date: Monday, June 22, 2020
Design and simulations:	30%
Presentation and slides:	25%	Date: TBD
Team work:	10%
Final report:	25%

Important: All deadlines and schedules for this course will reference Pacific Daylight Time.

Note: Failure to submit the final report will result in a failing grade for the course.

The final grade obtained from the above marking scheme for the purpose of GPA calculation will be based on the percentage-to-grade point conversion table as listed in the current Undergraduate Calendar.

Equality:

This course aims to provide equal opportunities and access for all students to enjoy the benefits and privileges of the class and its curriculum, and to meet the syllabus requirements. Reasonable and appropriate accommodation will be made available to students with documented disabilities (physical, mental, learning) in order to give them the opportunity to successfully meet the essential requirements of the course. The accommodation will not alter academic standards or learning outcomes, although the student may be allowed to demonstrate knowledge and skills in a different way. It is not necessary for you to reveal your disability and/or confidential medical information to the course instructor. If you believe that you may require accommodation, the course instructor can provide you with information about confidential resources on campus that can assist you in arranging an appropriate accommodation. Alternatively, you may want to contact the Centre for Accessible Learning located in the Campus Services Building. <https://www.uvic.ca/services/cal/>. The University of Victoria is committed to promoting, providing, and protecting a positive, supportive, and safe learning and working environment for all its members.

Course Lecture Notes:

Unless otherwise noted, all course materials supplied to students in this course have been prepared by the instructor and are intended for use in this course only. These materials are NOT to be re-circulated digitally, whether by email or by uploading or copying to websites, or to others not enrolled in this course. Violation of this policy may in some cases constitute a breach of academic integrity as defined in the UVic Calendar.

Sexualized Violence Prevention and Response at Uvic:

UVic takes sexualized violence seriously, and has raised the bar for what is considered acceptable behaviour. We encourage students to learn more about how the university defines sexualized violence and its overall approach by visiting www.uvic.ca/svp. If you or someone you know has been impacted by sexualized violence and needs information, advice, and/or support please contact the sexualized violence resource office in Equity and Human Rights (EQHR). Whether or not you have been directly impacted, if you want to take part in the important prevention work taking place on campus, you can also reach out:
