

Norma Mickelson Legacy Scholarship

One or more scholarships are awarded to undergraduate or graduate students in the Faculty of Education who have achieved academic excellence, and who are actively involved in the community and have a record of outstanding contributions to the community through their work as volunteers. Applications must be accompanied by a letter of recommendation from a community/volunteer group providing evidence of the exceptional contributions the applicant has made, and a second letter of recommendation from a Faculty of Education faculty member. In the case of an undergraduate student, selection will be made by the Senate Committee on Awards upon the recommendation of the Faculty of Education. In the case of a graduate student, selection of the recipient will be made by the Graduate Admissions and Awards Committee upon the recommendation of the Faculty of Education.

Check the following boxes that are applicable:

- One letter of recommendation from a community/volunteer group in support of volunteer work (as outlined above).
- One letter of recommendation from a Faculty of Education faculty member (as outlined above).

Incomplete applications will not be considered.
