

Masters in Early Childhood Education

The Masters of Education degree in Early Childhood Education brings experienced educators together for a two-year (2019-2021) cross-disciplinary program. The courses will focus on current issues and trends in early childhood education and will address a range of theories that guide early childhood studies. Students will conclude their program by developing an original graduating project based on their specific area of interest in early childhood education. Students will complete 15 units (7 courses plus graduating project) that will occur through two on-campus Summer Sessions (July 2019 & 2020), and two on-line Winter Sessions (Sept-Dec 2019; Jan-April 2020). The program cost is approximately $11,000 (spread over five installments).
