Masters in Curriculum Studies
Curriculum Leadership in BC
July 2020

WHAT is this Curriculum Studies Masters of Education, University of Victoria?

- The Masters of Education is designed to bring experienced teachers together for a two-year cohort based program leading to the prestigious University of Victoria Masters in Education (MEd) degree. It will serve as a strong support for the BC competency-based curriculum and assessment approaches.
- Graduates will complete a 15.0 units (7 courses and Project) program built around collaborative inquiry through two Summer Sessions (July only) and two Fall/Winter Sessions (Sept-Apr).

WHO would benefit from participating in this cohort?

- School-based K-12 leaders/administrators
- School-based department leaders
- School-based coaches (e.g. literacy, technology, inclusive education)
- District consultants
- Teachers interested in post-secondary teaching
- Classroom-based teachers interested in professional learning
HOW can I apply to be a graduate student for this cohort?

Application Requirements:
Applicants are required to have at least 2 years experience as a practicing teacher. Applicants must also meet the Faculty of Graduate Studies entry requirements, and the departmental requirements for a grade point average of B or higher.
