Notes
- A 1.5-unit course (equivalent to 3-4 credits at most institutions) meets for at least 3 hours per week for 13 weeks (one term).
- At UVic, ‘upper-level’ refers to 300 and/or 400-level courses normally taken in third and fourth year after introductory studies.

Teachable subject area: (Core) French
All prospective candidates, including native French speakers, require university-level French courses to qualify for admission. French speakers should consult the French department for an assessment to determine an appropriate course set.
- French as one of two teachable subject areas is available to those who have completed one of UVic’s French minor, general, major, honours, or combined major in French and English degree programs and have a second teachable subject area.
- French as a single teachable subject area is available to those who have completed one of UVic’s French major, honors or combined major in French and English degree programs.
- Those who have completed equivalent course work elsewhere may also be eligible for admission. To be approved, courses must be taught in French and applicable to a French degree program.

Prospective (Core) French candidates, including native French speakers, must demonstrate French language proficiency within the last two years by obtaining both an oral and reading score of 305 on the Test de français international (TFI) or achieving a DELF B1 score of 75% on all sections.

Students who want to complete a practicum in a French immersion classroom when they enter the program must: 1) achieve a DELF B2 score of 75% on all sections; and 2) complete a French immersion methodology course approved by the Manager of Teacher Education. UVic’s French Department offers DELF testing. Please visit their DELF Information website for more information about test times and to book an exam: https://www.uvic.ca/humanities/french/delf-exam/index.php.
