Program admission requirements

1. Admissibility to the university. Undergraduate Admissions Services determines eligibility for admission to UVic.
2. An acceptable undergraduate Bachelor's degree recognized by Undergraduate Admissions Services.
3. 3 units of approved English literature (or English literature and academic composition).
4. Demonstrated competency in written English (grade requirement; see page two).
5. See the three grade point average (GPA) requirements described on page two.
6. Approved academic studies in one or two teachable subjects relevant to the BC curriculum. A list of available subjects is provided on the website below.
7. Applicants must satisfy the experience requirement described on the program website below. Eligible applicants may also be invited to attend an interview.
8. For current applicant selection criteria, please see the program website below. This is subject to change for future intakes; please see the program website updated annually each fall for the upcoming intake.

→ In the fall, go to the program website for application instructions and information for following year's September intake:

Notes

- A 1.5-unit course (equivalent to 3-4 credits at most institutions) meets for at least 3 hours per week for 13 weeks (one term).
- At UVic, 'upper-level' refers to 300 and/or 400-level courses normally taken in third and fourth year after introductory studies.

Teachable subject area: (Core) French

All prospective candidates, including native French speakers, require university-level French courses to qualify for admission. French speakers should consult the French department for an assessment to determine an appropriate course set.

For the required upper-level courses: no more than one course may be taught in English; literature and language topics are recommended.

- French as one of two teachable subject areas is available to those who have completed one of UVic's French minor, general, major, honours, or combined major in French and English degree programs and have a second teachable subject area.
- French as a single teachable subject area is available to those who have completed one of UVic's French major, honours or combined major in French and English degree programs.
- Those who have completed equivalent course work elsewhere may also be eligible for admission. To be approved, courses must be applicable to a French degree program.

Language Proficiency Test Requirement:

Prospective (Core) French candidates, including native French speakers, must demonstrate French language proficiency within the last two years by achieving a DELF B1 score of at least 74% (18.5 out of 25) in every section or by achieving both an oral and reading score of 305 on the Test de français international (TFI). Official test results are due in Education Advising by May 31. UVic's French Department offers DELF testing. Please visit their DELF Information website for more information about test times and to book an exam: <https://www.uvic.ca/humanities/french/delf-dalf/index.php>. (If you hope to request that one or both practicums are in a French immersion setting, contact the Teacher Education Office at teachered@uvic.ca.)
