

COURSE OUTLINE

ECE 514 – Design and Analysis of Computer Networks

Term –FALL 2020 (202009)

Instructor

Dr. Sana Shuja
Phone:
E-mail: sanashuja@uvic.ca

Office Hours

Days: Wednesday
Time: 11am - 1:00pm
Location/Platform/link: Zoom/MS Teams

Course Objectives

The goal of the course is to introduce the fundamental concepts, mathematical tools and techniques related to network performance study, and how to apply them to solve practical problems in computer communication networks.

Learning Outcomes

Understand fundamental probability theory, random processes, finite-state Markov chains, queueing theory, and analyze network performance.

Syllabus

Probability, random variables and distributions. Transient and steady-state analysis of Markov chains. Queueing theory and networks of queues. Performance analysis of Local Area Networks (LAN) and Wireless Local Area Networks (WLANs). Telecommunications traffic modeling. Markov modulated and self-similar traffic.

A-Section(s): A01/A02, CRN 11038/11039

Days: MTh

Time: 2:30 pm - 3:50 pm

Location/Platform/link: Zoom/MS Teams

Reference Book:

Title: Analysis of Computer and Communication Networks

Author: Gebali, Fayez

Publisher: Springer

Year: 2008

Online Course Delivery:

As this course will be conducted online during this term, students will need to complete assignments/labs online. The students will require access to a computer which has the following software installed: Matlab, Latex Editor

References: Lecture notes and reference material will be available on Brightspace/MS Teams.

Assessment:

Assignments:	20%	Due Dates: Oct 19 th , Nov 26 th
Project	20%
Mid-term	20%	Date: Nov 9 th
Final Exam	40%

Important: All deadlines and schedules for this course will reference Pacific Daylight Time until November 1, 2020, and then Pacific Standard Time.

Note: Failure to pass the final exam will result in a failing grade for the course.

The final grade obtained from the above marking scheme for the purpose of GPA calculation will be based on the percentage-to-grade point conversion table as listed in the current Graduate Calendar.

Note to Students:

Students who have issues with the conduct of the course should discuss them with the instructor first. If these discussions do not resolve the issue, then students should feel free to contact the Chair of the Department by email or the Chair's Secretary to set up an appointment.

Course Withdrawal Deadlines:

- September 22, 2020: Withdrawal with 100% reduction of tuition fees
- October 13, 2020: Withdrawal with 50% reduction of tuition fees
- October 31, 2020: Last day for withdrawal (no fees returned)

Academic Integrity:

Cheating, plagiarism and other forms of academic fraud are taken very seriously by both the University and the Department. You should consult the entry in the current Graduate Calendar for the UVic policy on academic integrity.

Equality:

This course aims to provide equal opportunities and access for all students to enjoy the benefits and privileges of the class and its curriculum and to meet the syllabus requirements. Reasonable and appropriate accommodation will be made available to students with documented disabilities (physical, mental, learning) in order to give them the opportunity to successfully meet the essential requirements of the course. The accommodation will not alter academic standards or learning outcomes, although the student may be allowed to demonstrate knowledge and skills in a different way. It is not necessary for you to reveal your disability and/or confidential medical information to the course instructor. If you believe that you may require accommodation, the course instructor can provide you with information about confidential resources on campus that can assist you in arranging for appropriate accommodation. Alternatively, you may want to contact the Centre for Accessible Learning located in the Campus Services Building: <https://www.uvic.ca/services/cal/>. The University of Victoria is committed to promoting, providing, and protecting a positive, and supportive and safe learning and working environment for all its members.

Course Lecture Notes:

Unless otherwise noted, all course materials supplied to students in this course have been prepared by the instructor and are intended for use in this course only. These materials are NOT to be re-circulated digitally, whether by email or by uploading or copying to websites, or to others not enrolled in this course. Violation of this policy may in some cases constitute a breach of academic integrity as defined in the UVic Calendar.

Sexualized Violence Prevention and Response at Uvic:

UVic takes sexualized violence seriously, and has raised the bar for what is considered acceptable behaviour. We encourage students to learn more about how the university defines sexualized violence and its overall approach by visiting www.uvic.ca/svp. If you or someone you know has been impacted by sexualized violence and needs information, advice, and/or support, please contact the sexualized violence resource office in Equity and Human Rights (EQHR). Whether or not you have been directly impacted, if you want to take part in the important prevention work taking place on campus, you can also reach out:

Office of the Ombudsperson:

The Office of the Ombudsperson is an independent and impartial resource to assist with the fair resolution of student issues. A confidential consultation can help you understand your rights and responsibilities. The Ombudsperson can also clarify information, help navigate procedures, assist with problem-solving, facilitate communication, provide feedback on an appeal, investigate and make recommendations. Phone: 250-721-8357; Email: ombuddy@uvic.ca, Website: <https://uvicombudsperson.ca/>
