
ECE 452 – Optical Communication Technology

Term – Summer 2019 (201905)

Instructor

Dr. Tao Lu
Phone: 250-721-8617
E-mail: taolu@uvic.ca

Office Hours

Days: Monday
Time: 13:30-17:00
Location: EOW 321

Course Objectives

Introduce the major components, topologies and their operational principles of optical communication systems.

Learning Outcomes

Understand the wave propagation behavior in optical devices, be familiar with the functionality of each component and its applications, be able to perform simple modeling and simulation on optical components.

Syllabus

Review of modern optics, fiber waveguiding theory, passive/active optical components such as laser sources, photo detectors, optical amplifiers, optical transmission systems, WDM, SONET, noises in optical communication systems and reduction techniques, introduction to quantum communication systems.

A-Section(s): A01 / CRN 30303

Days: MR
Time: 10:00-11:20
Location: ECS 124

B-Section(s):

B01 Tue 14:00-16:50 Zohreh Sharifi(zohreh.sharifi12@gmail.com)
B03 Wed 13:30-16:20 Saeed Farajollahi(farajollahisaeed@yahoo.com)

Assessment:

Assignments:	20%	Due Dates: two weeks after each assignment is available
Labs	20%
Mid-term	20%	Date: Thur. June 20
Final Exam	40%

Note:

The final grade obtained from the above marking scheme for the purpose of GPA calculation will be based on the percentage-to-grade point conversion table as listed in the current Undergraduate Calendar.

Equality: This course aims to provide equal opportunities and access for all students to enjoy the benefits and privileges of the class and its curriculum and to meet the syllabus requirements. Reasonable and appropriate accommodation will be made available to students with documented disabilities (physical, mental, learning) in order to give them the opportunity to successfully meet the essential requirements of the course. The accommodation will not alter academic standards or learning outcomes, although the student may be allowed to demonstrate knowledge and skills in a different way. It is not necessary for you to reveal your disability and/or confidential medical information to the course instructor. If you believe that you may require accommodation, the course instructor can provide you with information about confidential resources on campus that can assist you in arranging for appropriate accommodation. Alternatively, you may want to contact the Centre for Accessible Learning located in the Campus Services Building.

The University of Victoria is committed to promoting, providing, and protecting a positive, and supportive and safe learning and working environment for all its members.

Course Lecture Notes: Unless otherwise noted, all course materials supplied to students in this course have been prepared by the instructor and are intended for use in this course only. These materials are NOT to be re-circulated digitally, whether by email or by uploading or copying to websites, or to others not enrolled in this course. Violation of this policy may in some cases constitute a breach of academic integrity as defined in the UVic Calendar.

Sexualized Violence Prevention and Response at UVic

UVic takes sexualized violence seriously, and has raised the bar for what is considered acceptable behaviour. We encourage students to learn more about how the university defines sexualized violence and its overall approach by visiting www.uvic.ca/svp. If you or someone you know has been impacted by sexualized violence and needs information, advice, and/or support please contact the sexualized violence resource office in Equity and Human Rights (EQHR). Whether or not you have been directly impacted, if you want to take part in the important prevention work taking place on campus, you can also reach out:
