

APPLICATION FOR COMMUNITY BUILDING FUND

From the UVic Equity and Human Rights Office

Initiatives selected will be awarded a one-time allocation of seed funding to support select new project or events that focus on enhancing equity, diversity and inclusion at the University of Victoria. Applications are reviewed and funding is awarded throughout the year on a needs basis. The amount awarded will be dependent on the number of eligible applications per term at the discretion of the Equity and Human Rights Office.

Applicants are encouraged to pursue additional funding partner(s) to help sustain the project. Grant requests will not be accepted for past events or for individuals' registration fees. Any UVic Faculty, staff and students are all encouraged to apply.

Selection Criteria Guidelines:

- ✓ Clear identification of equity issue(s) and/or group(s)
- ✓ Explanation of how this initiative/event/program will positively impact the group and the UVic community
- ✓ Description of how this initiative/event/program can be sustained
- ✓ The funds must be used within a twelve month period of the application. In recognition of the time lines for applications, applicants may wish to submit their application one term in advance.
- ✓ Applications can be submitted throughout the year.
