EMERGING ARTISTS ALUMNI SERIES

Calling all UVic School of Music alumni!
(solo artists, bands, chamber groups, composers)

We are accepting proposals from School of Music alumni for our Emerging Artists Alumni Series. This series is dedicated to showcasing the talents of our alumni in the early stages of their career. 1-3 applicants will be chosen each year to present during our regular concert season.

Successful applicants will be provided with (at no cost):

- Access to the Phillip T. Young Recital Hall for a concert and one dress rehearsal
- Use of a Steinway grand piano
- Event staff (ushers, stage manager, sound technician)
- Concert program printing
- Archival recording & live stream of the concert (optional)

Your event will be advertised on the School of Music's calendar of events, monthly e-newsletter, and social media channels but it is the responsibility of the artist(s) to promote their event.

Admission to concerts will be by donation. Proceeds will be divided 70/30 between the artist(s) and the School of Music.

Apply to concert@uvic.ca with the following:

- Preferred performance dates (preference will be given to concerts that can be performed in the months of Oct, Nov, Jan, Feb)
- Proposed program and list of performers (minimum 40-minute program excluding stage changes)
- Bio of each performer including graduating year for School Music alumni (250 words or less each)
- High resolution photo(s)
- Link(s) to artist website, audio, video and social media pages (if available)

UVic is committed to upholding the values of equity, diversity, and inclusion in our living, learning and work environments. We actively encourage applications from and the programming of works from members of groups with historical and/or current barriers to equity.
