

University of Victoria Policies, Code of Conduct Guidelines

As a condition of employment all University employees are covered by these policies, agreements or contracts and are bound by, and must comply with them. It is also the duty of all employees to be familiar with all administrative policies and stay current with policy updates. An entire listing of University policies and conditions can be viewed at the Policy and Procedures section of the University website.

Integrity, Impartiality & Accountability	Intellectual and ethical integrity is a core value of the University of Victoria. It is a fundamental principle that all University employees are accountable for their actions, and ensure they demonstrate integrity in their behaviour and general conduct of business, and that they act in an honest and ethical manner at all times.
