Employment Insurance (EI) Benefits	If you have worked sufficient hours in the last year, or since your last claim, you may be eligible to receive EI maternity leave benefits. The first one week of maternity leave is considered an unpaid waiting period. EI maternity benefits are then payable to the birth mother for a maximum of 15 weeks. Please check the EI website for current information and benefit amounts. http://www.esdc.gc.ca/en/reports/ei/maternity_parental.page	If you have worked sufficient hours in the last year, or since your last claim, you may be eligible to receive EI parental leave benefits. EI pays a maximum of 69 weeks of parental leave benefits if shared by both parents, providing both parents are eligible. If the leave is not shared, the maximum number of weeks is 61. Only one EI waiting period needs to be served per person or family – so will be waived if already served for maternity benefits. If you qualify to receive UVic supplemental top up benefits during your parental leave, you must apply for the equivalent number of weeks of EI parental leave benefits. Please check the EI website for current information and benefit amounts. http://www.esdc.gc.ca/en/report/ei/maternity_parental.page	If you have worked sufficient hours in the last year, or since your last claim, you may be eligible to receive EI parental leave benefits. The first one week of parental (adoption) leave is considered an unpaid waiting period. - Due to changes made by the Federal government, UVic will issue the equivalent EI amount for your last week of leave. This only applies if you served the Service Canada 1 week waiting period.
- Regardless of length of parental leave selected, supplementary top-up will be paid at the rate of 55% of average weekly EI insurable earnings.
- The above is intended as an example only.

Receiving Maternity and/or Parental Supplementary Top-up Payments from the University of Victoria

Step 1: Apply for EI benefits.

Apply for EI after you have begun your leave. Information and instructions on applying for EI Maternity/Parental Leave benefits is available on-line at <http://www.servicecanada.gc.ca/eng/sc/ei/benefits/maternityparental.shtml>

Your Record of Employment (ROE) will be prepared by the HRIS/Payroll Office and sent electronically to Service Canada. HRIS/Payroll cannot prepare your ROE until the regular payroll has been completed following your final day of pay.

Step 2: Confirmation of EI Benefits

Supplementary top-up benefits will commence after HRIS/Payroll receives confirmation from you of your entitlement for EI benefits. Once your claim with EI is approved, please forward a copy of the notification from EI that includes details of both your waiting period dates and weekly benefit amount to payrollbenefits@uvic.ca.

Step 3: Payment of Supplementary top-up benefits

Once HRIS/Payroll has received your EI confirmation as detailed above, you will be paid on the next regular pay day by direct deposit.

Maternity and parental leave checklist

- Obtain note from Physician or Midwife to confirm expected due date
- Prepare letter for Supervisor requesting maternity and/or parental leave
- Your department submits Position Status Change Request form to Payroll with note from Dr or midwife
- Contact Payroll at beginning of leave to confirm when ROE sent to EI
- Complete and submit application for EI benefits when leave starts
- Contact Payroll to alter dates if baby arrives earlier than leave date
- Submit EI approval notice to Payroll to initiate top up payments
- Make contingency plans for payment delay during EI adjudication process
- Complete form to add baby to extended and dental plans within 30 days of birth
- Return auto-debit authorization to maintain benefits
