WELCOME TO LEARNING CENTRAL

Learning Central is a free learning registration system designed to serve as the hub for all employee learning opportunities. Learning Central offer employees one-stop-shopping; afford training providers an easy tool to promote and manage courses, and record learning from across campus; and provide supervisors with an effective way to monitor employee development.

Learning Central is NOT for managing meetings, committees or events.

When in doubt, ask this question: do participants need a learning record of the event? If yes, then Learning Central may be your solution. If not, the university promotes the use of another great application for event and conference management named Eply:

UNDERSTANDING THE LEARNING CENTRAL APPLICATIONS

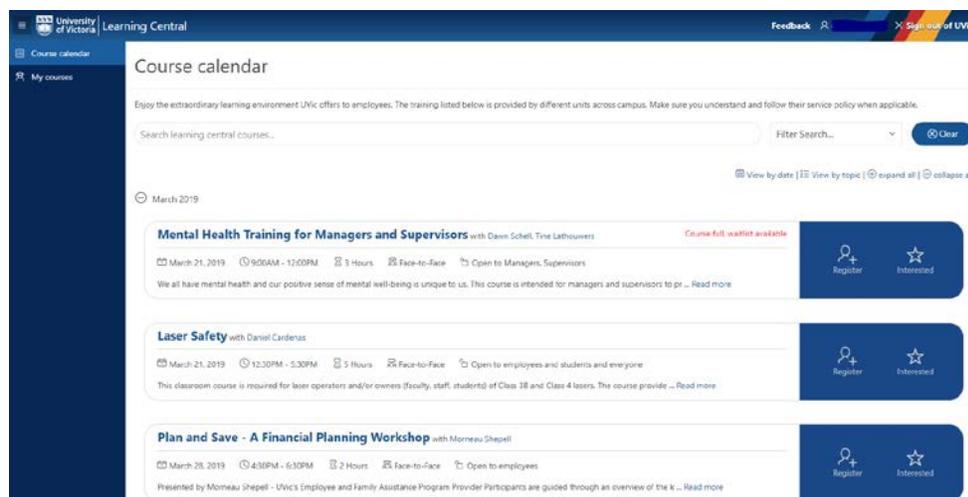

Learning Central consists of two different applications: one for registrants and another for administrators. UVic credentials, Netlink ID and password, are required for access.

REGISTRANT APPLICATION

Link: <https://apex.uvic.ca/gen/f?p=123>

Primary Users: Employees, faculty and staff. Learning Central allows access to students as an exception for when they are in an internal co-op position for example. Agency and Externally funded employees do not have access to the platform.

Main Actions: Browse for courses, register and unregister from courses, access learning records.

The screenshot shows the 'Course calendar' page on the Learning Central platform. The page features a search bar, a filter dropdown, and a 'Clear' button. Below the search bar, there are three course listings for March 2019:

- Mental Health Training for Managers and Supervisors with Dawn Schell, Tina Lathouwers. Course full, waitlist available. March 21, 2019, 9:00AM - 12:00PM, 3 Hours, Face-to-Face, Open to Managers, Supervisors.

Each course listing includes a 'Register' button and an 'Interested' button.

ADMINISTRATOR APPLICATION

Link: <https://learningcentral.uvic.ca>

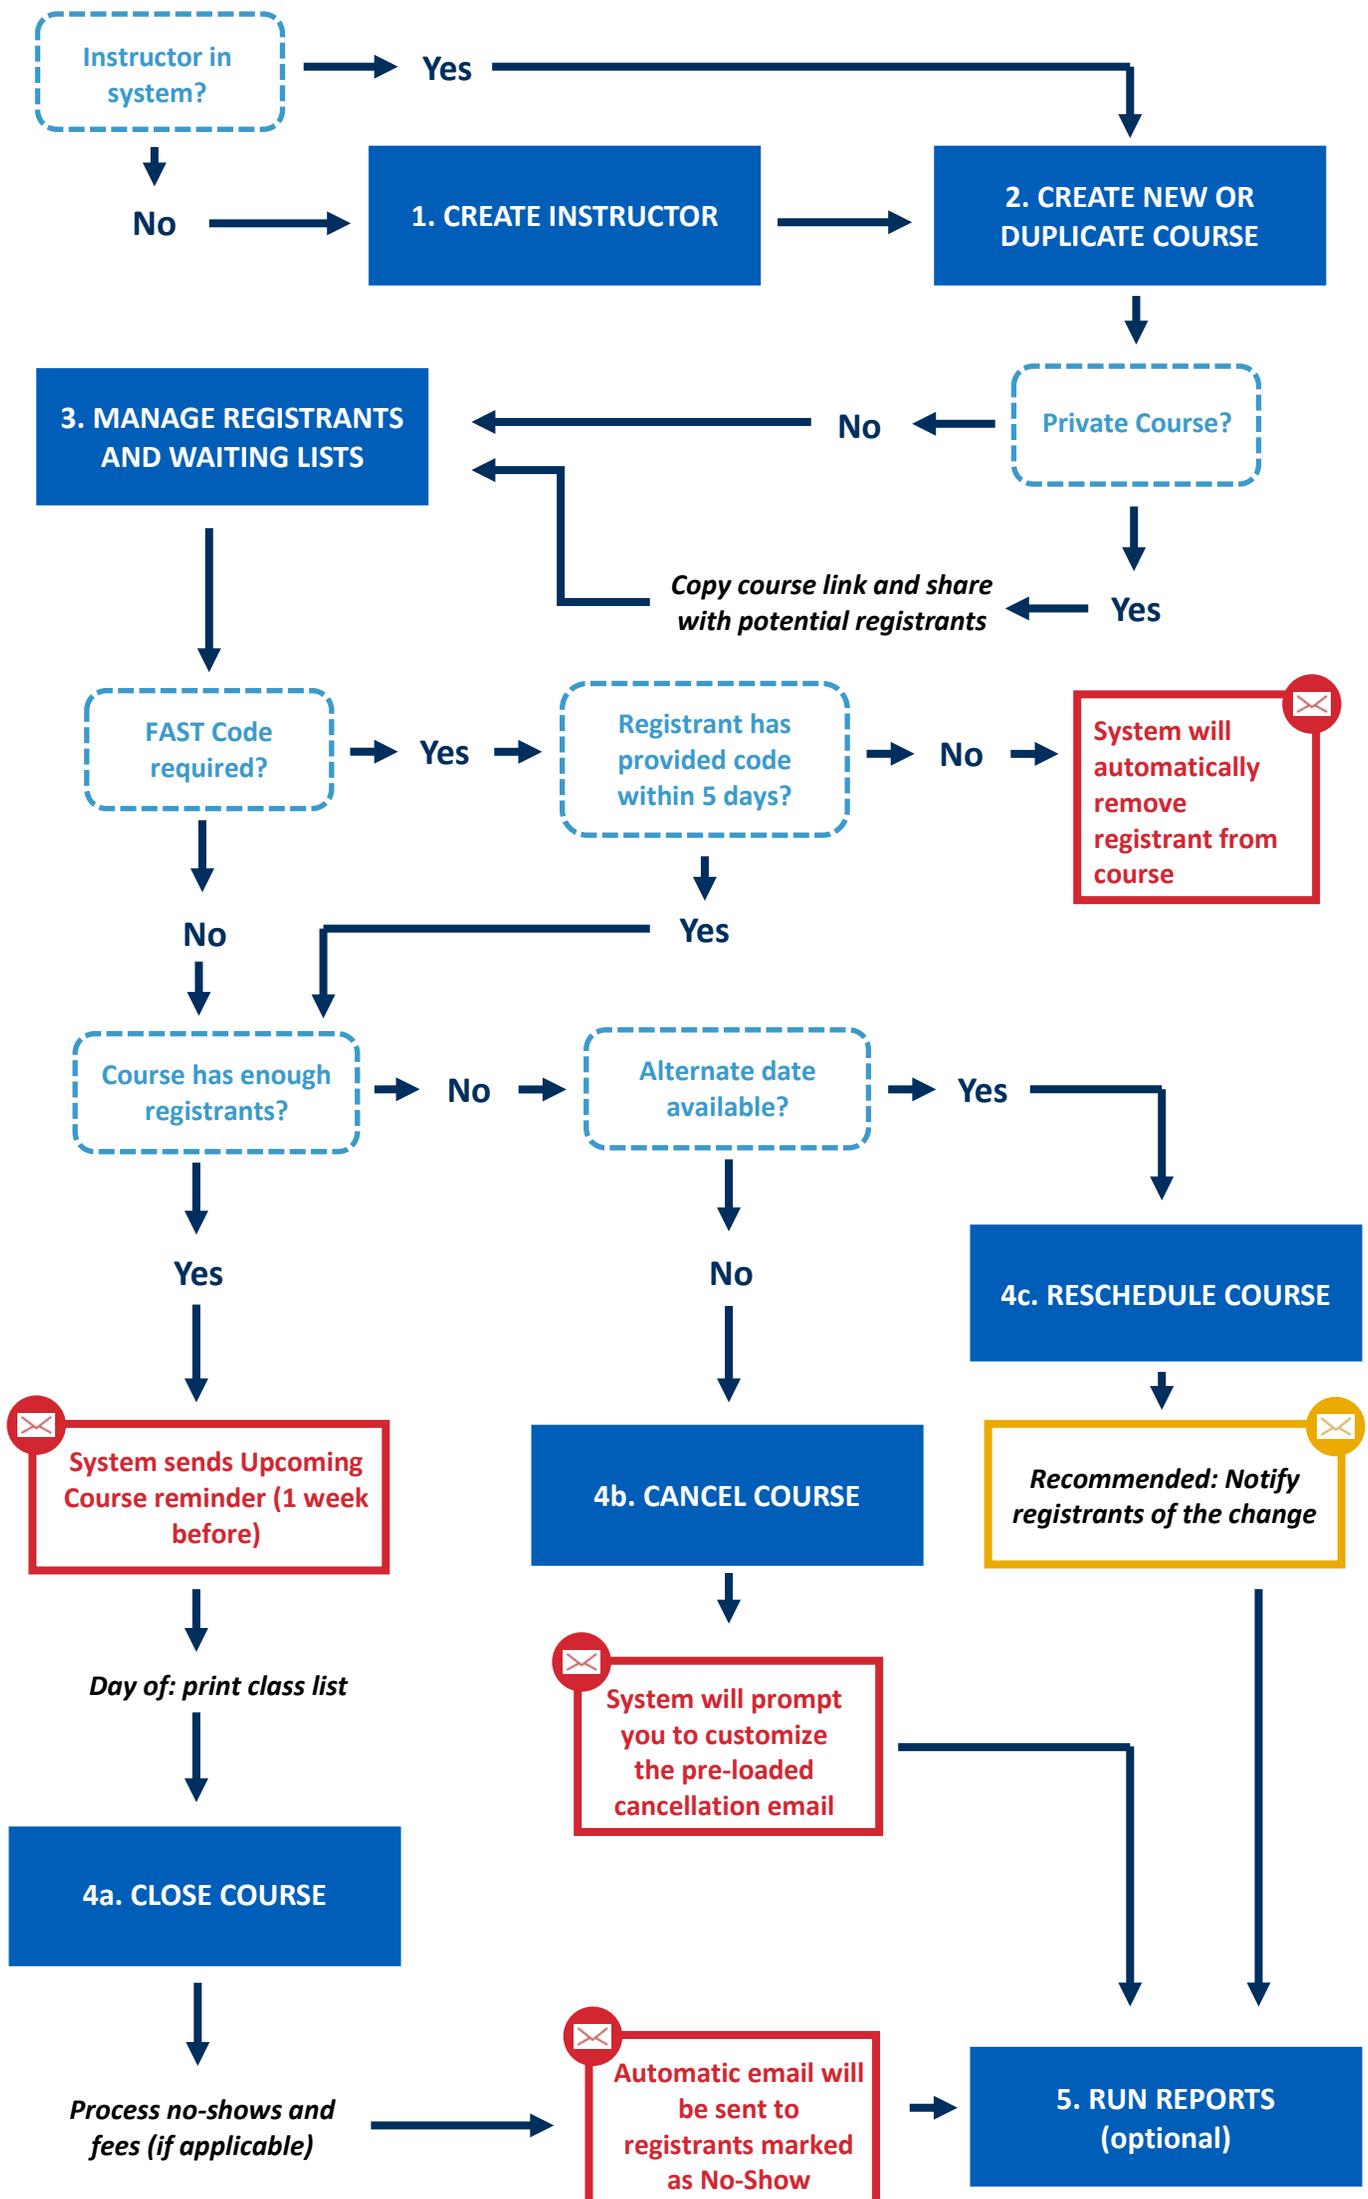

Primary Users: Training providers who have been trained and their account has been set-up by the Learning Central Admin team.

Learning Central allows different administrative groups, each with multiple administrators in either two levels of access. Read-only users can explore the training scheduled by their group and download classlist, with no rights to modify content this is recommended for facilitators. Training providers with full administrative rights can manage courses, facilitators, and participants.

APPENDICES

INTRODUCING YOUR TEAM TO LEARNING CENTRAL

Using this platform for the first time represents a change in the regular operation. Make sure your process aligns with the way Learning Central works.

A suggested approach includes:

1. Have a discussion with your team regarding your Learning Central needs, potential questions could be:
 - o What specific courses or workshops would we like to run through Learning Central?
 - o What level of access does each team member need? Select between Read-only or full administrator.
 - o What account could be used as group email? *This email is used to send all automatic notifications on behalf of the group. Registrants can reply to it.
 - o What is the service policy regarding late cancellations, no-shows, etc? Define whether fees will be applied.
2. Attend a Learning Central training session OR schedule a consultation with one of the Learning Central Admin Team members
3. After attending training, have a discussion with your team regarding specific roles and responsibilities on Learning Central making sure each step in the admin cycle has a person assigned:
 - o Who is responsible for adding new instructors and courses?
 - o Who is responsible for monitoring registration and waiting lists?
 - o Who is responsible for marking registrants as attended, no-shows or cancelled and making any necessary charges to FAST accounts?
 - o Who is responsible for closing courses? *All courses, after being offered, need to be closed in order for the system to create the learning records for participants.
4. Schedule a check-in for 2-4 months after starting using Learning Central to see how the application is working for you. Be sure to send any feedback, requests, and/or technical issues to the Learning Central Admin team.
