

LEARN ABOUT A BIOREGIONAL APPROACH TO THE FUTURE OF OUR SHARED REGION

Featuring Joe Brewer of the Design School for Regenerating Earth. Author of The Design Pathway for Regenerating Earth. And a panel of local leaders.

Joe and his colleagues are on a tour of the Cascadia Bioregion, having previously toured the Great Lakes and Colorado River Bioregions.

They are bringing people together to design and implement new frameworks of governance, ecology, and economy for the regeneration and health of our bioregions.
