

BSW ADMISSIONS APPLICATION CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

Protection of Privacy and Access to Information: All applicants are advised that both the information they provide, and any other information placed into the student record will be protected and used in compliance with the BC Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act \(1992\).

The information you provide in your application for admission is used for the purposes of admission, registration, and other decisions on your academic status. If you wish to have information on the status of your application released to anyone outside of the School of Social Work, you must provide written permission.

School of Social Work Policy: All BSW application materials are retained for two years at which point they are deleted except for the Experience Summary/Resume Form which is retained for admitted students.