

An open book with a heart-shaped cutout in the center of the pages. The pages are yellowed and the book is bound in a dark red cover. The background is dark and blurred.

Mini-dictionary of Gaelic words learned in the course

Gàidhealtachd

The Scottish Gaelic
speaking areas of the Highlands and Islands

Pronounced (roughly)
“gail-tock”

Blasta

1. delicious, palatable, tasty
2. savoury
3. succulent
4. agreeable
5. eloquent
6. tasteful

A close-up photograph of several round, crusty breads, likely Aran breads, resting on a perforated metal tray. The breads have a golden-brown, slightly cracked crust and are dusted with flour. The text "Aran = bread" is overlaid in white on the center of the image.

Aran = bread

Cidsin = kitchen

Bainne = milk

mòine =

peat; peat-bog, moor

cas-chrom = crooked foot

= foot plough for rocky ground

Buntàta =
potatoes

fuadach =
clearance,
eviction

dachaigh = home
slàinte mhath = cheers!
croitear = crofter
nàbaidh = neighbour

