We acknowledge and respect the lək̓ʷəŋən peoples on whose traditional territory the university stands and the Songhees, Esquimalt and W̱SÁNEĆ peoples whose historical relationships with the land continue to this day.

FRAN100: Intensive French I (3 units)
Online Summer 2022

Instructor:
Ms. Annye Castonguay, Pronouns: she/her/elle/la
Email: annyec@uvic.ca

Zoom classes: Mondays and Thursdays: 9h30 - 12h20. Please note that your video must be ON for class. Students are expected to actively participate during class.

General description
Intensive written and oral French. This course is meant to bring the student to level A1 of the Common European Framework for languages. It focuses on the 4 aspects of language learning: oral comprehension, oral expression, written comprehension, and written expression.

Prerequisite
FRAN100 is intended for beginners and near beginners. The course is normally not open to students who have taken French 11 or the equivalent in the last 3 years. For any questions or exemption requests, please contact the Department of French.

Instructional Methods
FRAN100 Summer 2022 will be delivered online. Various types of documents, exercises and evaluations will focus on the following communicative language activities and strategies: oral production (speaking), written production (writing), oral reception (listening), visual reception (reading), audio-visual reception (understanding and listening), oral and written interactions.

In this class, you will learn
In this course, we will focus on the communicative aspect of French in order to make you a language user. You will learn how to:

- talk about your interests and your activities
- express your likes and dislikes
- introduce your family
- describe your environment
- talk about the routine
- share your hobbies, describe your friends and ask friends out.
- talk about travels and shopping
- and of course, talk about food