

Sessional Appointments in Russian
University of Victoria
Department of Germanic and Slavic Studies

The Department of Germanic and Slavic Studies at the University of Victoria invites expressions of interest from qualified instructors for sessional assignments from 1 September 2018 to 30 April 2019 within CUPE Local 4163 (Component 3) Sessional Lecturers certification. Course assignments include a total of six Russian language courses at all levels (three courses per semester), subject to funding and enrolment criteria. Successful applicants will have demonstrated expertise in Russian language teaching, completed or be nearing completion of a Ph.D. in Russian Studies and will have proven teaching experience in the North American university system.

The assignment selection criteria will include qualifications and ability of the candidate(s) based on relevant education and professional experience and proven teaching effectiveness. The appointments will be made at the rank of Sessional Lecturer and salary will be commensurate with the sessional salary scale. Qualified applicants should submit a letter of application, curriculum vitae, recent student evaluations, and arrange to have two confidential letters of reference sent to:
