

Sheila and John Hackett Travel Award

Applications for the above award are now being accepted, for travel to the European Union for Research purposes (still includes Britain). MA or PhD students in the Faculty of Fine Arts and in the Faculty of Humanities Departments of English, French, Greek and Roman Studies, and History who have high academic standing are invited to submit their application to the Office of the Dean of Humanities.

We actively encourage nominations of candidates from groups with historical and/or current barriers to equity, including, but not limited to:

- First Nations, Métis and Inuit peoples, and all other Indigenous peoples;
- members of groups that commonly experience discrimination due to race, ethnicity, ancestry, colour, religion and/or spiritual beliefs, or place of origin;
- persons with a visible and/or invisible disability;
- women; and
- persons of marginalized sexual orientations, gender identities, and gender expressions.

The adjudication committee must consider equity and diversity when making its deliberations. All disclosures to the committee are confidential.

CRITERIA

Applications must include:

- 1) a curriculum vitae;
- 2) unofficial transcripts;
- 3) a statement of no more than 500 words describing the research to be pursued; the need to travel to the European Union to complete this research;
- 4) at the request of the donor; a statement of no more than 250 words describing contributions to the lives of fellow students;
- 5) a letter of support from the student's academic supervisor

Please ensure that your application includes all of the items

Adjudication by the Humanities Advisory Committee to the Associate Dean Research will take place in early October. The nominee may access this funding upon approval of the Committee's nomination by the Admissions and Awards Committee of the Faculty of Graduate Studies
