List course preferences for TA work below (course number, course name):

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.

Every effort is made to assign TAs to at least one of their course preferences, but it is not always possible to do so. If you are offered a position that is not one of your preferences and you decline the offer, you may not be assigned another position and your funding may be affected.

List relevant qualifications and experience pertinent to the above position(s), and any potential value each position will have for your academic program or career plans.

There is no guarantee that you will be offered a position. Appointments are made in accordance with Article 13.02 (Appointment Procedures) and Appendix A of the CUPE 4163 Collective Agreement. Offers are first made to graduate students registered in the Department of Greek and Roman Studies. Selection criteria include: qualifications and ability based on academic merit and related experience, the career and/or pedagogical value of the position to the student, the student's preferences, and other sources of graduate student financial support being received.

☐ By signing this form, I confirm that I am available for the duration of the appointment as posted and acknowledge the commitment and responsibility entailed in accepting a TA position. I will notify the Department immediately if my availability changes. I acknowledge that, if I accept a position and am unable to fulfill my duties, future TA positions may not be assigned.
