Please note that grading duties may extent up to seven days after the last day of the final exam period.

SUMMARY OF DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Duties will include some or all of the following: correcting homework; grading quizzes, tests, and/or exams; marking papers; recording grades; assisting with Brightspace; communicating with students; and invigilating tests and/or exams. If you would like additional details, please reach out to the instructor directly.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE • Applicants should possess an undergraduate degree in Greek and Roman Studies and should be registered in the Greek and Roman Studies MA program. • Familiarity with the subject matter of the course is an asset. • Other criteria considered include the career and/or pedagogical value that a position will provide to the student, the student's preferences, and the other graduate student funding that the applicant is receiving.

PLEASE NOTE: The Department will assign TA positions in accordance with the priorities outlined in the Collective Agreement Appendix A Appointment Priority Policy. Students in the second year of their program will be given priority.

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATIONS: Please submit your applications to grsgradadviser@uvic.ca by August 1, 2025. Contact either grsgradadviser@uvic.ca or grsadmin@uvic.ca if you have any questions or concerns. The University is committed to upholding the values of equity, diversity, and inclusion in our living, learning and work environments. In pursuit of our values, we seek members who will work respectfully and constructively with differences and across levels of power. We actively encourage applications from members of groups experiencing barriers to equity. The University's full equity statement is dated February 10, 2020.
