

GRS 323
Ancient Comedy and Satire
F2022
TWF 9.30-10.20 a.m.
Instructor: Darrel Janzen

Learning Outcomes

- Knowledge of the genres of comedy and satire in ancient Greek and Roman literature
- Exploration of the major works of comic drama, verse satire, and political and poetic invective in ancient Greece and Rome
- Analysis of characteristic forms of comic abuse
- Examination of how particular texts reflect their different cultural and historical contexts

Actor Dressed as Bird