

Latin 350: Medieval Latin

Fall 2025 MTh 10:00-11:20 a.m.
Professor Gregory Rowe

Readings in Medieval Latin are structured around a topic in post-classical Latin literature, with a primary focus on religious texts.

Learning Outcomes:

- Knowledge of Latin literature of Late Antiquity
- Familiarity with medieval epic and Latin lyric of the 12th century
- Possible reading of a medieval Latin comedy

Prerequisite: Latin 202, or permission of the department.

