

GRS 350: Transformation of the Late Roman World

Spring 2026 TWF 12:30-1:20 pm

Professor Gregory Rowe

The world of Late Antiquity in the Mediterranean and the Near East 150-750 CE, emphasizing Christianization, the changing role of the state, and the development of Late Antique art and literature.

Learning Outcomes:

Learn how, from the ruins of the Roman Empire, three new societies were born: the Germanic kingdoms, Byzantium, and Islam.

