Course Description:
A study of Greek and Roman myths, in the context of the culture and thought of Greece and Rome. Literary and artistic sources will be used to establish and analyze the nature and function of myths in these cultures. Topics include the gods, heroes, local myths political and cultural uses of myths and the origins of the influence of Greek and Roman myths on European culture.

Course outcomes/objectives:
• Describe major features and figures of Classical Mythology;
• Analyze Classical myths in their socio-historical contexts

Course Pre-/co-requisites:
• None

(This online outline is not the official course syllabus and is intended to give an overall sense of the course only. Detailed course outlines will be made available to registered students on the first day of class)