Course Description:
Reading the third book of Propertius’ elegies in the original Latin.

Course Outcomes/Objectives:
• improved Latin reading and linguistic skills;
• knowledge of a particular elegiac poet, of the generic concerns and metre of Roman elegy, and of the role of literature as a document of culture more broadly;
• improved writing and research skills (developed through essay assignment);
• improved oral communication skills (developed through class presentation).

Course Pre-/Co-requisites:
• LATI 202 or permission of the department

(This online outline is not the official course syllabus and is intended to give an overall sense of the course only. Detailed course outlines will be made available to registered students on the first day of class)